DARREN KAVINOKY

Lights! Camera! Action!

SOUGHT-AFTER EXPERT Attorney and legal analyst Darren Kavinsky is no stranger to the courtroom or to television cameras. However, Kavinsky is far more than just another talking head. His engaging style and off-center wit make him an especially sought-after expert on many TV shows. Kavinsky is the in-house legal analyst for The Insider and also appears regularly on Entertainment Tonight, the Today Show, Dr. Phil and various other programs. "One of my greatest joys is to share my experience with others, and television is a great opportunity to contribute on a large scale," Kavinsky says.

VISION OF FREEDOM The Kavinsky Law Firm focuses exclusively on criminal defense and is adept at handling every type of case. "Many of our clients come to us in such a panic that they can't see a positive resolution to their case," Kavinsky says. "We help them to understand their rights and see how our aggressive defense strategies can be transformed into favorable outcomes. We see their freedom."

STATEWIDE FOOTPRINT With headquarters in the Encino area of Los Angeles, The Kavinsky Law Firm defends cases in every court in California. It has offices throughout the state, including Newport Beach, San Diego, Riverside, Sacramento and San Francisco.

WHITE COLLAR, BLUE COLLAR, NO COLLAR The firm attracts clients from all walks of life. They include celebrities, everyday people and pro bono clients who couldn't otherwise afford the firm's representation. "We treat every client as if their case is the most important one on the docket, regardless of where they come from," says Kavinsky, who believes in comeback stories and triumph over addiction. "We care about people."

LEADER IN THE FIELD In addition to being named to this year's Super Lawyers® list, Kavinsky is AV-rated by Martindale-Hubbell® and was twice selected to the Rising Stars list for lawyers under 40. The American Trial Lawyers Association recently named Kavinsky one of California's Top 100 Trial Lawyers.

WINNING IDEAS In order to achieve the best possible results for clients, Kavinsky and his handpicked team collaborate closely on cases and use top experts including private investigators, forensic experts, accident reconstructionists and substance abuse experts to explore every possible defense. "We apply a team approach to every case we handle," Kavinsky says. "The emphasis is not on who comes up with the winning idea, but demanding that someone does."
